

EAST RIDING
MUSEUMS

BEVERLEY ART GALLERY PRESENTS
A HUMBER MUSEUMS PARTNERSHIP EXHIBITION

HUMBER ESTUARY CHANGING VIEWS

16 DECEMBER 2017 - 17 FEBRUARY 2018

Beverley Art Gallery and Treasure House

Helena Gaudekova - Curator helena.gaudekova@eastriding.gov.uk

Humber Museums Partnership --

Museum services in Hull, North Lincolnshire and East Riding.

Humber Estuary: Changing Views Exhibition aims:

- Involve all partner institutions in the form of loans
- Uncover the Humber Estuary as an inspiration for art, alongside its industrial heritage
- Showcase historic art alongside contemporary commissions
- Bring together art and social history (oral histories, films, objects)

Loans from Usher Gallery, Lincolnshire

Dice and Cup made from fish bones, loan from Fishing Heritage Centre, Grimsby
Whale teeth, Burton Constable Hall

Loans from:

Burton Constable Hall
Fishing Heritage Centre Grimsby
Goole Museum
Grundy Art Gallery, Blackpool
Hull Museums
Leeds Museums and Gallery
Usher Gallery
University of York
Withernsea Lighthouse
Yorkshire Film Archive

& private collectors

Barnston Drain by James Neal, Leeds Museums & Gallery

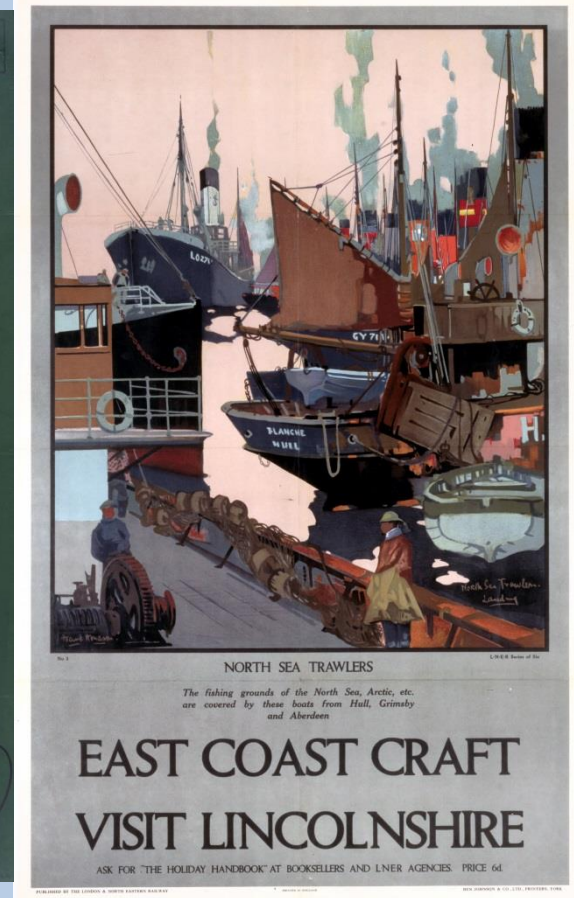

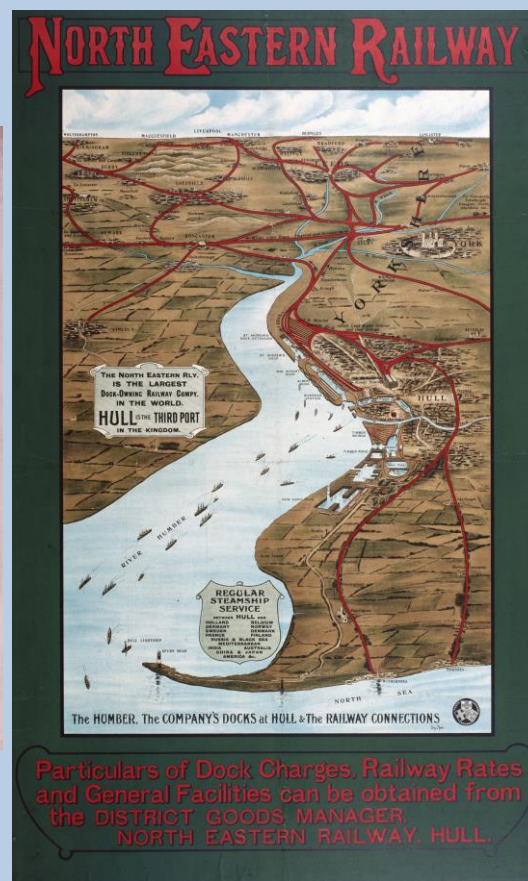

Rescue of the Crew of the Anna Mathilda by Grimsby Trawler 'Clyde' by Thomas Somerscale, Fishing Heritage Centre Grimsby

Burton Constable Whale (loaned teeth)

Travel Poster display

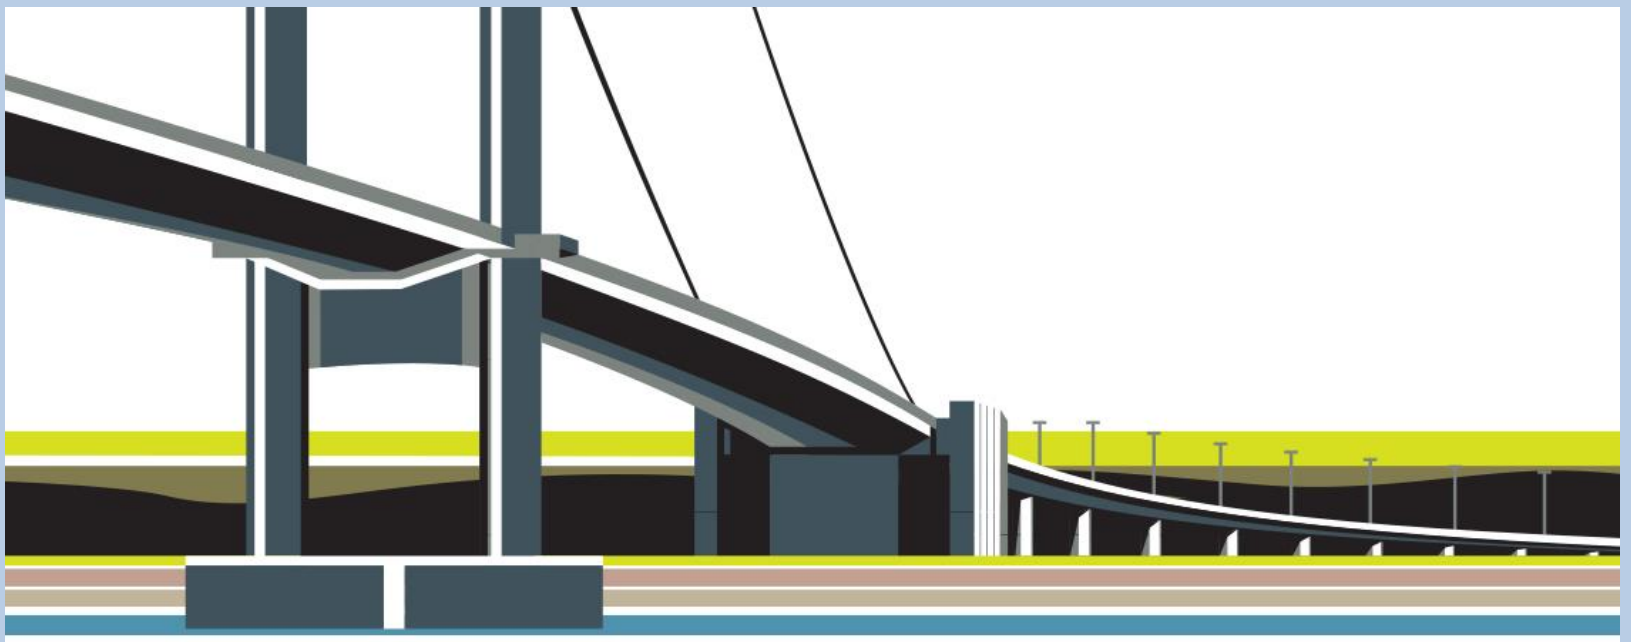

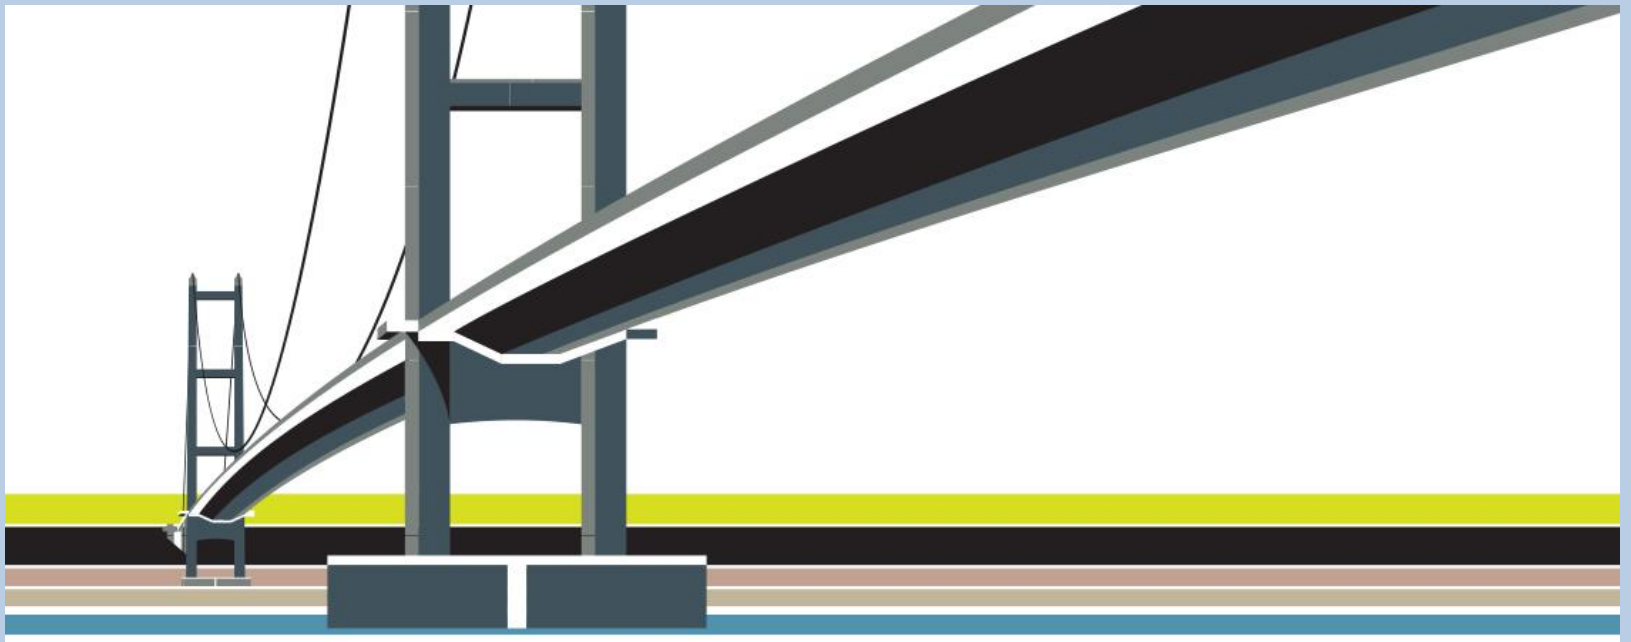

Yorkshire Film Archives & Drone footage

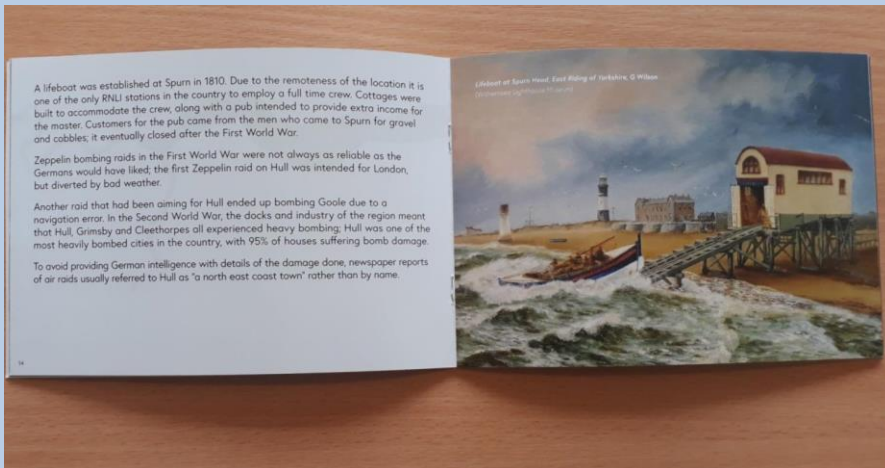

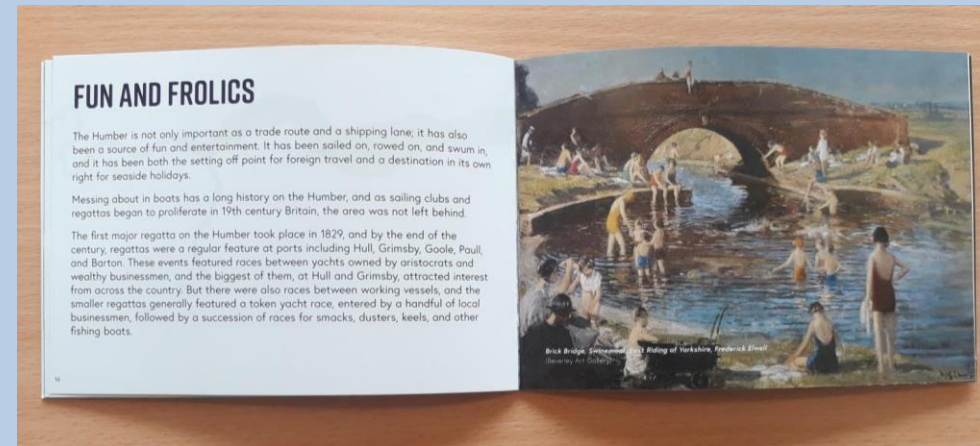

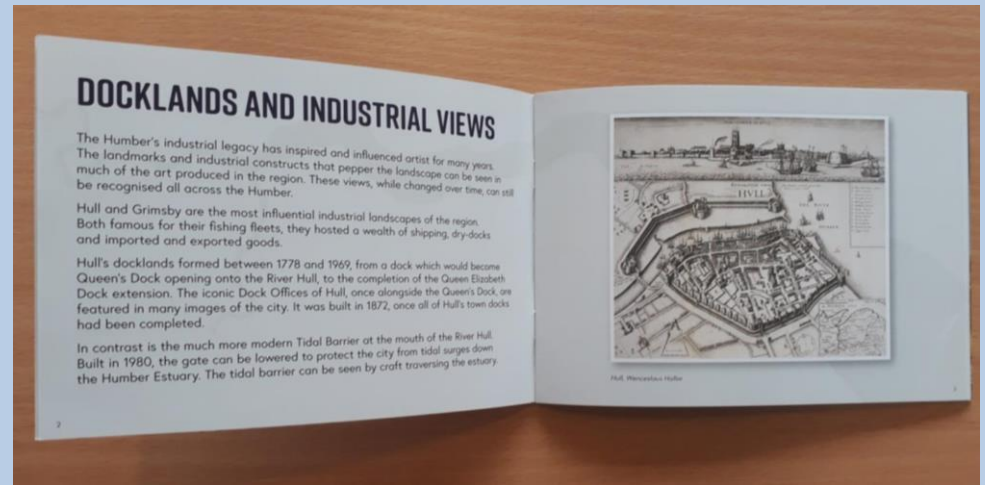

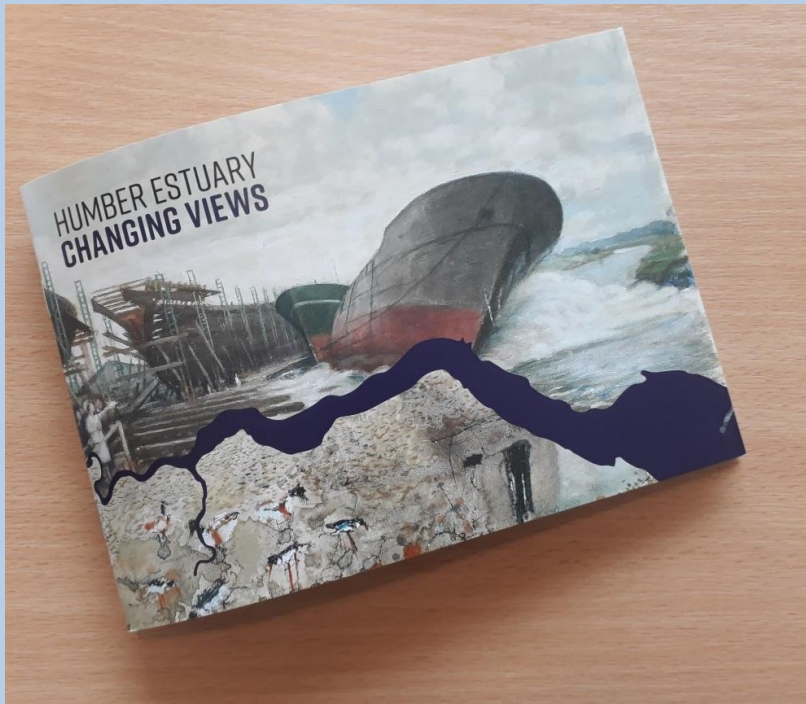

Contemporary Art -- Stephen Todd

Contemporary Art Commissions -- Ian Mitchell

Social history in focus -- Exhibition booklet

Councillor
Caroline Fox
launching the exhibition in December 2017

Thank you!