Friday 24 July 2020

In this Issue

Dear <<First Name>>

**Submissions for next week's bulletin should be sent to mdy-bulletin@ymt.org.uk
by 5pm on Wed 29 July****

As the region's museums start the long process of reopening, and visitors begin to return, we have funding news as ACE reopen project grants. Look out for details of a funding special Elevenses on Thursday before it takes a short summer break. There is news about how to take advantage of government business support. Book now, for reopening training, how to deliver inclusive and accessible customer service and how reopening effects collections care. The NMDC guidelines have been updated to cover the wearing of face masks in shops (see link in 'Previously' section at end). Finally, we have a new section from Dieter, 'Collectors' and Curators' Curios'.

We are still keen to hear your views about our communications. If you have any ideas how we can improve and any changes you would like to see in Elevenses as we prepare to relaunch in September, please email lily.wilks@ymt.org.uk.

Please do keep telling us about your successes and problems - either directly by phone or email or shared at Elevenses. If you're not sure who to email, send to mdyoffice@ymt.org.uk and we will try to help or redirect as appropriate. This will help us continue to advocate for you and, along with feedback on our work, to reshape our support in

News and Notices

Reopening Support

MDY recognises that every museum will be making a decision on when to reopen based on their own individual situation, involving a multitude of different factors. With that in mind, we have commissioned a suite of different training, and over the coming weeks will also highlight practical resources available.

We are mindful that museums are at different stages in this process, and resources are aimed at both supporting museums to make an informed choice about reopening, and providing tips and advice to those who continue to evolve their new operations as staff, volunteers and visitors return to on site.

There are more details in the Reopening Resources section below.

Prosper North: providing business support for cultural heritage organisations in the North of England

Application deadline: 3 August

Prosper North is a free business support programme funded by the National Lottery Heritage Fund, and delivered by Creative United in partnership with Key Fund, Bates Wells and Social Investment Business.

The programme aims to improve the capabilities of around 80 organisations in the North of England – from music venues to community art groups, and independent museums to literature festivals. The programme is designed to increase income and impact and provide support in becoming more resilient businesses.

Currently, they are in the final stages of applications for the last edition of the programme - the deadline for applying is 3 August.

Find out more at: www.creativeunited.org.uk/services/prospernorth.

Eat Out to Help Out Scheme

Does your museum have a café? You can take advantage of the Government's Eat Out to Help Out scheme where your customers can get discounts off the food you serve in the month of August.

Yorkshire Museums Shortlisted for Family Friendly Museum Award From Home

Earlier this year, we asked families and museums to share what they thought was the best online activity for families during lockdown.

We received over 400 nominations from all over the world for a huge range of activities, from films and quizzes to games and craft activities. Last week our expert panel whittled down the nominations to a shortlist of 26 museums.

Over the summer holidays, family judges will try out all the activities and their feedback will decide a winner and highly commended award for each category. The winners will be announced at an awards ceremony in October.

View the full shortlist at:

kidsinmuseums.org.uk/2020/07/shortlist-announced-for-the-family-friendly-museum-award-from-home.

Register your interest: Where's Wally? Spooky Museum Search

Kids in Museums is once again partnering with Walker Books on a new October half term activity for families. They are inviting museums and heritage sites to register their interest in being part of the Where's Wally? Spooky Museum Search.

The campaign will celebrate the launch of the new book, Where's Wally? Spooky Spotlight Search, and encourage families to safely get out and about in museums over the October half term.

Organisations will be sent a free kit with everything you need to host your hunt for Wally. To register your interest in taking part, please fill in their online form (link below) and select 'Museum Development newsletter' in the how did you hear about us section. Please note that places are limited and this does not guarantee your place.

Reopening Resources

MDY Recovery Funding Grant Scheme - Out Now

Thanks to the Art Fund and Arts Council England we are able to launch a new recovery grant scheme designed to reach parts that other funds cannot.

MDY'S Recovery Grant Scheme has awards of £3K - 10K to support museums recover well from this crisis. We have at least £35,000 of grants to distribute and the application form will be open until 30 September with one assessment round after all bids are in. After this, the team will be wrapping cool towels around their heads and working out which museums will benefit most from this investment.

We know that for many museums, reopening is the easy bit (even if it doesn't feel that way now). Recovering well is going to be a long haul and we want to help make it as successful as possible. We will open the application form by August but our guidance notes are available now at

As always, get in touch if you want to talk your ideas through.

Post-Lockdown: Reopening with Inclusive Practice

30 July, 10.00am – 11.30am

Delivered by Disability Collaborative Network and EMBED

In light of the pandemic and post lockdown recovery, having inclusive and accessible customer service that considers the needs of your diverse visitors will be vital in attracting your visitors back to the organisation. The session will look at:

- supporting the changing needs of your diverse visitors
- visitors that are still shielding and require digital support
- common factors which will affect the visitor experience in museums such as signage, navigation, interpretation and customer service.

Please note that this session will have captioned text. It is a shared session across the Arts Council North region and we anticipate it will book up quickly. Book your place quickly to avoid disappointment! One place only per organisation please. A recording of the session will be available in August.

Reopening the National Gallery

Friday 31 July, 9.00am
Live Webinar on Zoom

The National Gallery reopened on 8 July after a closure of 111 days.

In this webinar we'll share how we did it and why and the lessons we've learnt along the way. Plus, we'll share up to the minute insight on the audiences returning first to the Gallery.

At the heart of the session will be a chance for extensive Q&A with the Gallery senior managers who have created our new visitor experience.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP to chris.michaels@ng-london.org.uk.

Reopening Support: Planning to Reopen Collections Care Considerations

Wed 12 August, 3.00pm – 4.30pm
via MS Teams

This is one of a series of sessions that will support your skills and knowledge to apply COVID-secure guidelines to collections care as your museum re-opens or plans to re-open.

The training is aimed at museum staff or volunteers with responsibility for public exhibition spaces and storage areas as part of collections management and care roles.

We will be basing this session on material developed by the experienced conservator Libby Finney, Regional Collection Care Facilitator of the Museum of London, to examine the broad practical issues involved. MDY staff with collections and Museum Accreditation will co-host the session.

There will be an opportunity for a Q&A session at the end of the presentation. However, if you have questions which you would like to post in advance please send them by 10 August to dieter.hopkin@ymt.org.uk.

To attend this session please book on Eventbrite:

NB. This session will not include general issues of social distancing, cleaning, visitor

Major Art Prize Goes Virtual

While The Stanley & Audrey Burton Gallery is working on plans to safely re-open to everyone, you can still enjoy the freshest talent from Leeds' budding art scene from home.

The annual FUAM Graduate Art Prize is going virtual! Now in its eighth year, the prize and exhibition, supported by the Friends of University Art & Music (FUAM), rewards the artistic excellence of students completing BA studies in Art and Design and Fine Art at the University of Leeds in 2020.

The 2020 finalists are:

- T'Shah Henry (BA Art and Design)
- Emma Lawrence (BA Art and Design)
- Sasha Napoli (BA Fine Art)
- Poppy Jones-Little (BA Fine Art)

The finalists were selected by an expert panel of judges following submissions from recent graduates of the School of Fine Art, History of Art and Cultural Studies and School of Design at the University of Leeds.

The judging panel comprises Professor Alison Fell (Director of the Leeds Arts and Humanities Research Institute), Jane Bhoyroo (Producer, Yorkshire Sculpture International) and Helen Watson (Director, The Tetley – maternity leave).

The online exhibition will launch on 3 August and can be viewed at:

fuam.leeds.ac.uk.

The first piece from Tracy Satchwill's artist residency at North Lincolnshire Museums can now be viewed in the museum and online. 'A Home and a Husband' is a collage animation which explores the role of a housewife, through a feminist perspective, during the late Victorian and Edwardian eras.

Tracy took inspiration from the museum's Ironstone Cottage where visitors can now view the film. The animation uses the artefacts and archival materials of the museum as well as found objects.

Funding Opportunities

Arts Council National Lottery Project Grants

Arts Council England have issued the following statement:

'On 22 July we'll be open again for applications, with a budget of £59.8 million available until April 2021. After a brief closure of the fund in the immediate aftermath of the Covid-19 crisis, we are pleased to say that National Lottery Project Grants will be back later in July.

We're making improvements to make the fund more responsive to the needs of smaller independent organisations and individual practitioners during Covid-19. We have prioritised reopening this programme to help fund independent organisations, creative practitioners and freelancers as quickly as possible. We'll publish updated guidance for the programme by mid-July'.

Find out more at: www.artscouncil.org.uk/projectgrants.

NLHF Heritage Emergency Fund

- Costs associated with reopening safely and in line with Government guidance
- Stabilising your organisation
- Preparing for recovery, including strategic reviews of business models, operating plans and business plans, and investment to enable digital delivery of services.

Grants of £3,000-£50,000 and £50,000-£250,000 are available and NLHF will be announcing further funding opportunities shortly.

MDY Small Development Grant Scheme - Paused Due to Popular Demand

Who knew that sticky tape and sanitiser would be so popular?

We responded to demand, created 'Escaping Lockdown' grants and the money has now liberated many miles of social distancing signage, contactless ticketing systems and hand sanitiser into your museums. So much so, we rattled the budget tin and found coppers left at the bottom.

So, our Small Development Grant scheme and the Escaping Lockdown Grants are now paused.

We are searching behind our sofa cushions to find some more money. Any partial applications will be kept warm and dry to be completed at a later date. If we are able to reallocate some money then we will reopen the scheme.

Collectors' and Curators' Curios

A Curious Royal Find

My wife's long-deceased uncle was a slightly obsessive private collector of Stuart historical material.

One of his most curious finds was as a result of being approached by a provincial dealer who had an old jewel in which he might be interested. The dealer told him that he had an interesting locket which claimed to be from someone called 'Reenie Scosha' but that he did not know much more about it.

Indeed, as it turned out, it was an important find that the uncle probably obtained at a reasonable price. His connoisseur's eye recognised what it was an important piece of jewellery which contained a lock of hair from Mary Queen of Scots (French 'Marie reine d'Écosse'). He added it to his extensive collection of material associated with this ill-fated monarch.

We all need an opportunity to smile, at this time, or a chance to share great ideas to help us ...relax!

Alan's Ornithology:

Lockdown Excitement; Big Birds Overhead

The most amazing sight of this strange year for me was when a white tailed eagle flew over my suburban garden. It caused quite a commotion amongst the local jackdaws and crows as it flew over on its two metre wings. Early in lockdown young white tailed eagles that are part of a reintroduction programme on the Isle of Wight decided to have a look round the country and flew north as far as North Yorkshire. You can see where they went in this blog post thanks to satellite tracking: www.forestryengland.uk/blog/white-tailed-eagle-project-may-update

In the last few weeks there has been another even larger young bird of prey visiting the south of our region - a lammergeier or bearded vulture. Keep an eye open if you are in the Sheffield area.
