York Museums Trust Museum Development Yorkshire

Latest news for week ending Friday 14 August 2020

In this Issue

Dear <<First Name>>

**Submissions for next week's bulletin should be sent to mdy-bulletin@ymt.org.uk
by 5pm on Wed 19 August****

At MDY some of us will be taking a little bit of time off in August to staycation (please don't judge me for using that word...) or just escaping from the computer screen! Consequently it may take us longer to get back to you, but we are listening. If you are also snowed under with emails, please don't forget you're always welcome to give one of the team a call – contact details at the bottom.

This edition leads with a new scheme to promote your museum and opportunities to connect with colleagues both regionally and beyond. Do also check out the great work being done by colleagues across the region in the 'Your Lockdown' Initiatives section. If you have a new project on the go don't be shy – get in touch and we can share your news!

We have had lots of positive feedback on this section, with many people saying they really enjoy finding out what other museums are up to and getting inspiration.

Finally – for all of you who have been marvelling at the recent (or current) storms, do make sure you check out Michael's recommendation in 'And Relax' – it is fascinating!

We are still keen to hear your views about our communications. If you have any ideas how we can improve and any changes you would like to see in Elevenses as we prepare to relaunch in September, please email lily.wilks@ymt.org.uk.

If you're not sure who to email, send to mdyoffice@ymt.org.uk and we will try to help or redirect as appropriate. This will help us continue to advocate for you and, along with feedback on our work, to reshape our support in these changing times.

Obituary: Michael Loynd FMA, 1943-2020

Excerpt taken from obituary written by Terry Suthers and published by the Museums Association:

'A respected expert on museum security, known for his care and generosity, Michael (Mike) Loynd FMA, died peacefully on 2 July in hospital in Lerwick, Shetland, aged 77.

Mike was admired as a museum professional who served as director of the museum and art gallery service for Yorkshire & Humberside Area Museum Council from 1972 to 1987.

A Lancastrian from Preston, Mike had worked at the Atomic Energy authority as a radio chemist prior to his first museum job in 1966 as assistant keeper of conservation at Liverpool Museum.

He moved to Yorkshire in January 1970 as antiquities officer for Yorkshire Museum Service, before being appointed successor as director to Richard Harrison.

Mike became a respected expert on museum security and chaired the International Council of Museums' committee for museum security for a term in the 1980s. Each area council had its own style, so the Yorkshire & Humberside service had Mike's energy, drive, enthusiasm and infectious sense of humour and smile.

I seem to always remember him laughing. He was also very much a people person and will be remembered for the care and generosity he showed mentoring many younger professionals.'

Culture Recovery Funding - Support from MDY

The criteria for the Culture Recovery Fund have been set by the Department of Digital, Culture, Media and Sport and are focused on supporting organisations to remain open, reopen or remain closed and operate until they can reopen.

As this is not a traditional 'project' based fund, we want to support museums through two routes:

- MDY recommends that any museum considering applying takes advice from a management accountant, or if they do not have access to an accountant, that they take advantage of the financial advice available to museums through AIM's relationship with the Charities Finance Group. If your museum still needs support in this area, please talk to us as soon as possible.

* To book time with MDY to talk through your proposal and for us to act as a sounding board or critical friend, please complete a quick form so we can get in touch and arrange a call.

Reopening Resources

MDY recognises that every museum will be making a decision on when to reopen based on their own individual situation, involving a multitude of different factors. We are mindful that museums are at different stages in this process, and resources are aimed at both supporting museums to make an informed choice about reopening, and providing tips and advice to those who continue to evolve their new operations as staff, volunteers and visitors return to on site.

Crisis Healthchecks - Free Consultation Offer

Rachel Mackay is offering a limited number of free two-week Crisis Healthchecks to smaller museums/heritage organisations who are in need of some support with crisis management post Covid-19.
