Kin: a new installation of drawings by Marianne Walker at Sewerby Hall and Gardens

Available to tour after October

Marianne Walker is an award-winning contemporary artist who was born in Bridlington in 1970 and is currently based in London. Her practice is an exploration of drawing in conversation with the material remains of the past. She is fascinated by the malleability of history and the storytelling possibilities of archaeology.

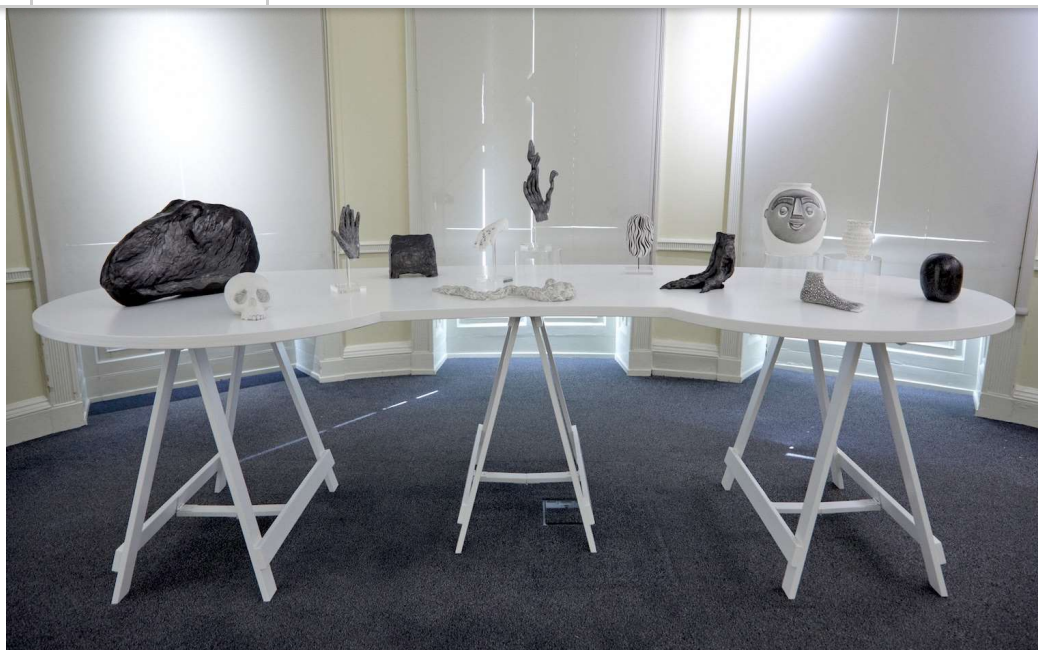

Image © the artist

The title of Walker's installation Kin points to the shared cultural and archaeological histories found in the landscape of East Yorkshire. She has made a number of new fragmentary three-dimensional drawings that build on these histories. The installation spans eons of time referencing the Jurassic, Mesolithic, Iron Age, Roman and early Medieval eras. In addition, important figures from East Yorkshire such as St Hilda and Amy Johnson are referenced, as well as works that use recognisable objects such as ceramics for playful extrapolations of drawing

Find out more at: www.eastriding.gov.uk.

When the exhibition at Sewerby Hall closes at the end of October, the artist is looking to tour Kin to another museum or gallery. It was funded by Arts Council England and is built around the real and folkloric histories of East Yorkshire. If you would like to discuss exhibiting Kin please contact Marianne on 07950 941771 or email mwal23@hotmail.com.

We Want to Hear From You!

If you have an exhibition, event or some special news do get in touch. We're interested and would love to tell everyone in the region too!

Dates for Your Diary

Getting Your House in Order Workshops

Museum Development Yorkshire, in partnership with Collections Trust, Museum Development North West and Museum Development North East, is running Getting Your House In Order series of workshops again for 2022.

Led by Lindsay Duncan, Outreach Officer at Collections Trust, these online workshops are open to trustees, managers, beginners, and volunteers from museums in Yorkshire which are Accredited or formally working towards Accreditation. They are also a good refresher for museums wanting to tighten up their documentation, and a reminder of why this work is necessary.

- 9 June: Introduction to Spectrum 5.0
- 21 July: Ownership of collections
- 7 September: Documentation histories
- 13 October: Dealing with objects with uncertain ownership
- 10 November: Audit
- 7 December: Borrowing and lending.

For more information and to book please visit:

www.museumdevelopmentyorkshire.org.uk/getting-your-house-in-order-workshops-2022.

Your Wellbeing

Embrace Your Limits - with Oliver Burkeman

Wed 25 May, 7.00pm (online via Zoom)

What if you stopped trying to do everything? Modern society is obsessed by time management - with our ever growing to-do lists and shrinking attention spans. But how can we really make best use of our limited time on this planet (about four thousand weeks on average)?

At this special event, Oliver Burkeman will take us on a refreshing journey exploring our use of time. He'll explain how to reject the futile obsession with 'getting everything done' and share ways to build a meaningful life by embracing, rather than denying, our limits.

Find out more and book your place at:

www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/embrace-your-limits-oliver-burkeman-tickets-328045732617.

Open to all with optional donation. By booking you will also receive access to the event video and resources.

The Royal Crown Derby Museum Charitable Trust

Seeking New Chair to Board of Trustees

There has been a museum on the site of the Royal Crown Derby factory, 10 mins from Derby city centre, since 1967. The museum is an independent charity with an independent board; however we work in close partnership with the manufacturing business and have a positive ongoing relationship with them which we aim to build on and cement during the next phase of our development.

Having survived the pandemic thanks to generous support from the factory and having been enabled to reach new audiences thanks to funding from AIM, NLHF and ACE we are now looking at the next stage of our growth. It is our intention to seek significant funding to enable us to invest in and redevelop the site into a first class visitor experience. Could you help guide us towards an ambitious new future?

Funding Opportunities

Alternative Fundraising Free Workshops

Museums are great at fundraising but we're keen to encourage them to look beyond the usual funders and make the most of the opportunities available to them, which is why Museum Development North West and Museum Development Yorkshire have collaborated to create a new programme for museums in the North looking at alternative funding streams.

Alternative Sources of Money
Thursday 26 May, 10.00am – 11.30am

The first session will look at different sources of funding, how this money behaves and what this means for your museum. For example, social enterprise investment is different from philanthropy but what does this mean for the way you work? Your museum can also secure income for work it is already delivering, and many museums do not take advantage of these opportunities.

Book your free place at:

www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/alternative-fundraising-different-sources-of-money-tickets-334532213857.

Bringing in New MoneyThursday 9 June, 10.00am – 11.30am

In this second session we will look at some of the schemes that are available so that your museum can receive financial relief or rebates from different parts of the public sector. Many museums are able to claim significant sums of money back through these schemes but not everyone takes advantage of them. We will look at funds available through local government as well as schemes such as Gift Aid and the Museums and Galleries Exhibition Tax Relief.

Book your free place at: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/alternative-fundraising-bringing-in-new-money-tickets-334534972107.

Growing CollectionsWednesday 29 June, 2.00pm – 4.00pm

In this third and final session we will look at ways museums can grow collections via cultural gifts, bequests, friends' groups and object campaigns. We will also look at the legal and ethical implications for this type of work and what we need to consider when undertaking it.

Book your free place at:
www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/alternative-fundraising-growing-collections-tickets-334543537727.

Please note that these events are for those working in non-National, non-NPO Accredited museums in the North East, North West and Yorkshire.
