Latest news for week ending Friday 3 June 2022

In this Issue

Dear <<First Name>>

Welcome to the latest MDY e-newsletter. We hope the you are enjoying the Jubilee Bank Holiday either by having a well earned rest or being massively busy with visitors.

In addition to national festivities we need to say congratulations to our colleagues in Bradford in becoming the UK City of Culture in 2025. It was fantastic to see so many of our museums referenced in the press releases over the past couple of days and we know how hard the teams have worked to create such a strong pitch.

In this edition we have more success to share with Wakefield Museums being shortlisted for both an M&H and an MA award for their work addressing the climate crises. If your museum is interested in this line of work do take part in the NEMO survey and join MDY in our Carbon Literacy events. Reducing carbon impact and saving money at the same time is common sense and business sense!

As always, we have a raft of workshops and events coming up including our summer programme of Regional Museum Forum meetings. Do sign up for great content, a fantastic visit and good networking. There is also a week left to apply to take part in our learning cohorts. These are a great way to have an introductory dive or refresher into a key area of museum work and we'd encourage anyone interested to sign up.

News and Notices

Bradford is UK City of Culture 2025!

We're thrilled to announce that the Bradford district will be the UK City of Culture 2025. The winner of the hotly contested competition was revealed live on BBC The One Show this week by Secretary of State for the Department of Digital, Culture, Media and Sport (DCMS), Nadine Dorries.

Shanaz Gulzar, Chair of Bradford 2025 said: 'This is a huge opportunity to celebrate our extraordinary cultural heritage and for our young, ethnically diverse population – who have been so involved in shaping our bid – to become leaders and changemakers and begin a new chapter in our story. Bradford has been overlooked and underestimated for so long – it's now our time to shine.'

The landmark year is set to deliver more than 1,000 new performances and events including 365 artist commissions, a series of major arts festivals as well as exciting national and international collaborations. Its themes will be rooted in the unique heritage and character of Bradford and will reveal the magic of the district that is held in its people, its ambition, and above all, its potential.

The Dialect and Heritage Project is a National Lottery Heritage-funded initiative based at the University of Leeds. The University is working in partnership with five museums, including Ryedale Folk Museum and the Dales Countryside Museum.

Museums and Climate Change Survey from the Network of European Museum Organisations (NEMO)

Survey closes: 22 June

Everyone working at or freelancing for museums is invited to answer NEMO's ongoing survey on museums and climate change.

With your invaluable contribution and help, NEMO will be able to map the status quo of European museums' transition and journey towards sustainability in a time of climate emergency. The responses will also feed into recommendations for policy makers and help steer the sector towards a sustainable future.

We need to act now to mitigate the damaging effects of climate change, lower carbon emissions and transition to sustainable solutions. So, please take the survey and share it with colleagues, friends and your network. Every answer counts!

Participate in the survey at: bit.ly/NEMOclimate.

What's Happening in Your Region?

Congratulations to Wakefield Museum Shortlisted for 2 Awards!

A World of Good at Wakefield Museum

Wakefield Museum's climate crisis exhibition, A World of Good, has been extended due to its popularity. The exhibition will now run until 10 December 2022.

The multi-sensory exhibition tackles the climate crisis through the letters of 19th-century environmentalist Charles Waterton, who built the world's first nature reserve at his home in Walton, near Wakefield. The letters have been brought to life through the paper sculptures of local artist Andy Singleton, animation by Charlotte Blacker, and the expert commentary of Sir David Attenborough, Chris Packham and Liz Bonnin.

Visitors to the exhibition are invited to make a pledge to take action on the climate crisis – at home, at work, in the garden or in their lifestyle.

The exhibition has been shortlisted for two awards – the Museums Association's Museums Change Lives Best Project award 2021 and the Museums + Heritage Sustainable Project of the Year award 2022.

You can visit the exhibition at Wakefield Museum until 10 December 2022, or find out more about the A World of Good project (plus make your own pledge to take action) at: wakefieldmuseumsandlibraries.blogspot.com/p/a-world-of-good.

New Head of Museums and Galleries for Bradford Council

Bradford Council is delighted to announce the appointment of a new Head of Museums and Galleries, James Steward.

James comes to the service from Colchester and Ipswich Museums where his Service has recently won a Museums and Heritage Award for its co-curated exhibition 'The Power of Stories' and where he has implemented a number of great plans and improvements, including National Portfolio Organisation status and the successful National Heritage Lottery Fund application for the £8.7m redevelopment of Ipswich Museum.

James says he is 'delighted to be joining Bradford at an exciting time of development and change for the Museums and Galleries Service and in the middle of Bradford's transformational cultural ambitions including the bid for City of Culture 2025'

James will join the Service on 6 June 2022, succeeding Rosie Crook, Interim Museums and Galleries Manager, who is retiring.

Sledmere Wagon Challenge

On 7 May teams from army units across the country came to Sledmere to compete in various events as part of the stately home's Wagon Challenge Day. The teams took part in challenges including wagon run, hit the rat, driving long rein, showing in hand and tug of war, all of which were designed to replicate the training associated with the Wagoners when the unit was preparing for the Great War. The inaugural winners of the trophy were the 10th Queen's Own Gurkha Logistic Regiment RLC.

We Want to Hear From You!

If you have an exhibition, event or some special news do get in touch. We're interested and would love to tell everyone in the region too!

Dates for Your Diary

Getting Your House in Order Workshops

Various dates June to December, 10.00am - noon
**only 8 places per session****

Museum Development Yorkshire, in partnership with Collections Trust, Museum Development North West and Museum Development North East, is running Getting Your House In Order series of workshops again for 2022.

Led by Lindsay Duncan, Outreach Officer at Collections Trust, these online workshops are open to trustees, managers, beginners, and volunteers from museums in Yorkshire which are Accredited or formally working towards Accreditation. They are also a good refresher for museums wanting to tighten up their documentation, and a reminder of why this work is necessary.

- 7 September: Documentation histories
- 13 October: Dealing with objects with uncertain ownership
- 10 November: Audit
- 7 December: Borrowing and lending.

For more information and to book please visit:

Elevenes with MDY Coming up:

Thursday 23 June Managing and using natural science collections

Join us with natural science curators from around the region to hear about and discuss care and use of natural science collections. Pick up some housekeeping tips and advice if you are a non-specialist with a natural science collection, or take the opportunity to reflect on how museums are using natural science collections with audiences today. An opportunity to connect with others with natural science collections – experts and non-specialists are all welcome!

All are welcome! Remember there's no need to book, just make a note in your diary, then click on the link on the website on the day:

Carbon Literacy for Museums

New Online Training Sessions in July, September, November 2022 and January 2023

Bookings are now open for you to gain Carbon Literacy certification. Courses are open to museums (including paid staff, volunteers and freelancers who work across all service areas) from Accredited Museums or those Working Towards Accreditation in the North of England. Priority will be given to non-National museums. We advise that, where possible, two people from your organisation attend a course for peer support when developing actions.

Virtual Conference, 11 – 15 July*Early bird tickets end 8 June

DCDC22 will showcase how digital innovation is transforming the cultural heritage and academic sectors and their relationship with their audiences. From individual projects to national programmes, for organisations and groups large and small, we look forward to examining the opportunities and challenges that digital technologies and collaboration can offer.

Emerging technologies have brought considerable benefits to cultural heritage organisations, transforming approaches to institutional collections, our ways of working, and the way people discover and engage with collections. As research continues to drive innovation, how can we ensure that our practices remain relevant, open, inclusive, representative and transformative? How can our practices in turn enable new innovations?

Job Opportunities and Volunteering

Ripon Museums Administration Officer

Salary: £18,227 (£9.61 ph), fixed term (1 year)

This is a great opportunity for a highly organised and skilled administrator to make a real difference to the performance of all aspects of the Trust – to establish a high quality and dynamic approach to managing data and processes across our business. The post holder will work under the Director but get involved in a diverse range of administration tasks, support a great team and develop new skills and experience. As well as general administration, the role will specifically support school/group/event bookings and digital production. You will work alongside and support a team of volunteers to participate fully in administrative and digital tasks, deliver effectively and to improve health and wellbeing.

Find out more at:

Deadline: Midnight on Sunday 5 June.

Museum of the Home (London) New Chair Wanted

The Secretary of State for Digital, Culture, Media and Sports is seeking to appoint a new Chair of the Museum of the Home to drive forward and bring to life the ongoing transformation of the Museum, and the place to explore and debate the meaning of home.

Museum of the Home reopened in 2021 following an £18.8m refurbishment with increased gallery spaces, a contemporary art programme and a vibrant programme of public events. The challenges for the next Chair include rethinking our much-loved Rooms Through Time, developing a masterplan for undeveloped areas of the museum site, and ensuring the Museum continues to increase and broaden its audiences, impact and reach.

Find out more at:

publicappointments.cabinetoffice.gov.uk/appointment/museum-of-the-home-chair.

Closing date: Wednesday 8 June.

Yorkshire Wildlife Trust Visitor Engagement Manager (Yorkshire)

Salary: £29,300 – £31,800 (dependant on experience)

Yorkshire Wildlife Trust are seeking an innovative and experienced Visitor Engagement Manager to help us grow and diversify our audiences and strengthen our supporter journeys towards increased engagement, income generation and impact for the natural world. The successful candidate will work across multiple teams to develop and implement strategic plans for investment in nature reserve-based assets, curate a highly targeted programme of wild events and experiences, and raise the profile of our portfolio through destination marketing.

Find out more: www.ywt.org.uk/jobs/visitor-engagement-manager.

Closing date: Monday 13 June.

Rotherham Museum, Arts and Heritage Collections and Exhibitions Manager

Salary: £29,174 - £31,895 (pay award pending)

This is a wonderful opportunity to be involved in the further development of the wider Rotherham Museum, Arts and Heritage team which includes Clifton Park Museum, Boston Castle and five heritage sites across Rotherham.

The successful applicant will manage the Collections & Exhibitions Team to oversee the effective management, documentation and development of the Nationally Accredited museum collections including the York and Lancaster Regimental Collection.

Closing date: 19 June.

Artlink Hull CEO & Director

Salary: £40,578 (2022 infl. increase to be added)

Artlink Hull is having its 40th birthday year in 2022 – and they say life begins at 40! To lead the organisation into our next decade, we are seeking to appoint a new CEO & Director. This is an exciting time to lead Artlink Hull forward as we approach a major strategic priority to enter the Arts Council England National Portfolio for 2023 onwards.

Find out more and apply at:

Space for Learning Workshop

Hybrid Learning Guidance: kit, safeguarding and copyright

Wed 8 June, 3.00pm - 5.00pm (online)

This is the first of five free Space for Learning Hybrid Learning Guidance workshops run by the Clore Duffield Foundation in partnership with GEM and Engage.

Three expert speakers will be discussing what you need to build hybrid learning spaces, how to develop your online safeguarding practice and what you need to consider when delivering online from a copyright, licensing and attribution standpoint. There will be time for Q&A and small and whole group discussions.

Find out more at:

Oxford Cultural Leaders Residential Programme for 2022

This acclaimed leadership programme for cultural organisations has developed a reputation as a vital training ground for senior leaders in the sector.

Managing in a tough economic climate will be critical for leaders in the arts and culture as they navigate the years ahead. The sector faces particularly complex challenges with the 'cost of living crisis' and greater constraints on funding across the arts, already heavily impacted by the pandemic. The programme will address these challenges in 2022.

Find out more at: www.glam.ox.ac.uk/ocl-programme.

Application deadline: 27 June.

Digital Heritage Hub Free Online Masterclass

Thursday 30 June, 10.30am - 12.00pm

Ensure your digital strategy doesn't gather virtual dust! This masterclass, hosted by the University of Leeds, will explore how you might design, plan, and lead on digital transformation for your heritage organisation. The session will introduce resources from the Digital Heritage Hub and help you navigate the themes to create a coherent digital strategy that works for you.

Find out more at: www.culturehive.co.uk/digital-heritage-hub/digital-heritage-hub-masterclass.

Funding Opportunities

Art Fund Student Opportunities Funding Programme

Art Fund_

Applications Now Open

Harness the talent of university students to help realise a project at your museum or gallery. Apply for a grant to pay the students and receive support in recruiting candidates from our network of students.

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. We ask applicants to allow at least eight weeks between submitting applications and the time by which they need a decision. We will consider applications for up to £10,000.

We will consider 100% funding towards the costs associated with paying students for their time to help cultural organisations deliver projects.

Alternative Fundraising Free Workshops

Museums are great at fundraising but we're keen to encourage them to look beyond the usual funders and make the most of the opportunities available to them, which is why Museum Development North West and Museum Development Yorkshire have collaborated to create a new programme for museums in the North looking at alternative funding streams.

Bringing in New Money Thursday 9 June, 10.00am – 11.30am

In this second session we will look at some of the schemes that are available so that your museum can receive financial relief or rebates from different parts of the public sector. Many museums are able to claim significant sums of money back through these schemes but not everyone takes advantage of them. We will look at funds available through local government as well as schemes such as Gift Aid and the Museums and Galleries Exhibition Tax Relief.

Book your free place at: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/alternative-fundraising-bringing-in-new-money-tickets-334534972107.

Growing Collections Wednesday 29 June, 2.00pm – 4.00pm

In this third and final session we will look at ways museums can grow collections via cultural gifts, bequests, friends' groups and object campaigns. We will also look at the legal and ethical implications for this type of work and what we need to consider when undertaking it.

Book your free place at:
www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/alternative-fundraising-growing-collections-tickets-334543537727.

Please note that these events are for those working in non-National, non-NPO Accredited museums in the North East, North West and Yorkshire.
